From the President:

Hello Quilters!

Happy New Year to everyone! I hope all of you had a wonderful holiday season filled with lovely surprises and many happy memories. Our whole family was able to join us for Christmas this year which made it especially wonderful!

Traditionally, the New Year is a good time to make resolutions (i.e. goals) for the coming months. I would like to challenge each of you to include a quilting resolution on your list. Here are some ideas:

I will finish at least one UFO this year.

I will learn a new quilting technique and use it in a quilt.

I will teach a young person to make a quilt.

I will volunteer and/or attend the AQG quilt show in March.

I will sew and donate XX (you choose the number) charity quilts.

I'm sure you can think of many others!

Regarding choosing a new venue for the 2025 quilt show, we anticipate receiving a contract in January. Hopefully, we will be able to announce the venue for the 2025 show shortly thereafter.

Meanwhile we are actively working on the 2024 Quilt Show. You will be receiving more details about the Quilt Show Boutique, Youth Activities Program, Vendors, and Raffle Baskets over the coming weeks.

Don't forget the Rusty Barn show at the end of January. If you plan to attend, you can purchase discounted tickets to the show on the AQG website. Not only will you benefit from receiving the discount, but AQG will also benefit by receiving a portion of the ticket sales.

Happy Quilting!

AQG President

Eva Kilgore

From the President:

DONATIONS, DONATIONS, DONATIONS

Every so often we are contacted by a quilter (or the family of a quilter) who has a large stash of fabric and supplies they would like to donate. Since AQG no longer has an office where we can store fabric, some of our members have asked whether we are still accepting these donations.

The answer is “YES”. Just contact the AQG president at president@aqgmail.org or any other Board member and we will arrange to pick up the donated items and store them.

Good quality items will likely end up as Fun Day prizes, or show up in Raffle Baskets or other fund raising activities. The remaining fabric will be offered to Chapters for charity projects. Remember – Too much fabric is like too much chocolate, an impossibility!

Cotton Patchers of Coolidge

submitted by Brenda Lohr

December has definitely been a productive month for the Coolidge Cotton Patchers. On the 8th we were treated to a wonderful holiday party organized by our president, Jacque Hendrie-Henry and her committee that included Brenda McBath Vigil, Donna McMahon, Liz Baggenstoss and Barb Bentley. We enjoyed wonderful food and games, a silent auction, a visit from Santa, and were surprised with being able to watch the city's electric light parade.

During our December 14th Social Sew, we were honored to present 34 comfort quilts to several local agencies, including the Coolidge branch of the Hope Women's Center, the City Magistrate's office, the police department and Pinal County Victims Advocate's office. We also were able to donate over $200 to the local chapter of the D.A.V. between our Thanksgiving and Christmas collection, as well as a sizable donation of non-perishable foods.

We are looking forward to the next annual Coolidge Cotton Patcher quilting retreat to be held at the Coolidge Women's Club January 19th and 20th. Lots of food, fun, and projects are in the planning stages and it will be a wonderful way to start off the new year.

We hope you have all had a blessed holiday season.

Delightful Quilters

submitted by Jo Ann Bergdoll

Delightful Quilters have closed out 2023 with a little art, some sewcial-izing, and an Elf Party that would make the North Pole denizens jealous.

In October, Jo Kilgroe demonstrated an Art Abstract project. Members brought colorful pictures from magazines. They then drew a grid on the picture. From piles of donated scraps, they searched for fabrics containing the colors in each square. The scraps were trimmed to a standard size and arranged according to the colors within each grid. From these, a small abstract quilt top could be made. (See samples.)

November was meeting-less but at least 35 Delights gathered for our 2nd Sew-cial. Many of us worked on quilted Christmas stockings. Others spent their time on charity quilts. Still others worked on holiday gifts. All of us found it to be a relaxing time spent with each other, catching up, with lots of laughs and even sharing impromptu demonstrations on how to do something quilty.

December's meeting was a gathering of the Elves. The name refers to our many members who make quilted Christmas stockings for those served by Devereux Advanced Behavioral Health. More than 600 stockings were donated this year! Monica Chapman from Devereux shared that these stockings, filled by members of other organizations, are given to children in foster care. Afterwards, more than 70 of our 100+ members enjoyed playing games, winning door prizes and Elf prizes, looking over this year's challenge quilts and enjoying a catered brunch. This year's challenge quilts, "24 in '24," were as diverse as their makers. The rules were simple: make a quilt 24" x 24" featuring 24 of something and incorporating a recognizable amount of the provided red fat eighth on the front of the quilt. Viewer's Choice winners in order were: 1st Krista Dyelle, 2nd Claire Victor, 3rd Barb Janson, Honorable Mentions, Gayle Reed and Barb Tatera. (See photo.) Congratulations, Quilters!

Desert Threads

submitted by Sue Bart

Desert Threads Members Enjoy the New Season With Interesting Meetings

Our members come from many different communities in the East Valley and enjoy quilts with a variety of techniques and styles. We meet in the Sun Lakes Oakwood 'Computer Training Center' on the 2nd Wednesday mornings. At the November meeting Claire Victor talked about her progress creating quilts to enter in shows, especially the QuiltCon Show. QuiltCon is produced by the Modern Quilt Guild, an organization with many local groups from around the world. In 2025, QuiltCon will be in Phoenix, watch for the dates. Claire showed slides and actual examples of her beautiful work. January 15, Claire will teach a class using improv techniques to make an art quilt of face caricatures. At the December 13 meeting Desert Threads members presented the finished quilts that had been in the 'making it' stage from before 2023. These are called 'UFOs' (UnFinished Objects) or might also be known as 'PUPs' (Poor Unfinished Projects).

Alyce Leach spoke at the December 13 meeting and will teach a class in February. Alyce high-lighted her road learning to quilt and showed some superior examples in her trunk show. She explained how she grew in her skills and now does beautiful curved piecing. She will teach us a class in February using 'Sew Kind of Wonderful' rulers for doing curves.

Diana Jones continues to present a new Block-of-the-Month at each meeting for members to make and show at the next meeting. Members are finding these blocks interesting and challenging. When all blocks have been revealed each participant will put their blocks into a quilt. Organizers of The Bazaar table at the Sun Lakes Womens' Association Holiday Bazaar in November reported on the great success of this first time effort and thanked the members for the many, many gorgeous quilts that were donated for this fund raising activity. A few of the quilts did not sell and have been added to the collection of quilts made by members for local charities, such as The US Vets in Phoenix. The January 10 meeting will feature Pam Rockley lecturing about 'Ten Sisters' patterns and techniques. Attendees will learn about this easy piecing technique.

At our November monthly meeting we gave quilts to Veterans through our “Quilts of Honor” program. This program is similar to Quilts of Valor. The three men Trent, Alex and Dennis receiving quilts were overwhelmed with gratitude. Co-Ordinator Judy introduced them and each were honored for their service.

The winner of our Opportunity quilt “Majestic Desert Star” was drawn on December 2nd at Connie’s Quilters Hide-away.

The Lucky winner was Taria Wilson who lives in Victorville, Ca.

Thanks to all who purchased tickets for our fundraiser. Attached is a progression of it’s assembly by the membership.

Night Owls

submitted by Theresa Baethke

It may not be snowing in Phoenix, but Christmas was definitely in the air at the Night Owls monthly meeting. After celebrating our December birthday's, we drew our monthly Who's Whoo. Laura G. answered the question, "When people refer to your quilts as "blankets", is it nails on the chalkboard, or you just don't care." Laura told us that she makes her quilts with love, given in love, and wants the recipients to be wrapped in her love. What they call them just doesn't matter to her. What a great answer!

The Night Owls community service ended with a bang. We have donated 160 stuffed animals, 366 quilts, and 600 pillowcases to St. Paul's church. Ninety-six quilts to AZ Forster kids, 49 quilts to Family Advocacy and 1,500 eye glass cases to our local hospital.

Kim James introduced us to our next block. She named it Hazel, and she warned us it has a lot of flying geese! Everyone who completed last month's block showed them off. They all looked amazing.

We had a chapter challenge and tonight was the night to show off all 17 entries. Each person there voted for their favorite! Mary Jeffries won for tonight, but everyone was encouraged to submit them for the upcoming Quilt Show. Entries are due by January 6.

As everyone filled up on our December potluck, Penny passed around Christmas jokes (with answers) to each table. We went up a few at a time to tell our joke. Some were hilarious and some would qualify for a Dad Joke of the Year contest. I even saw a few eye rolls, but it was such a fun thing to do while eating all the delicious food.

Cindy Boyd announced there were only 4 spots left at our Spring Retreat. It will be February 7 – 11, 2024. The fee of $125 is due in January. Reach out to her at boyd56@cox.net if you'd like to sign up.

All who finished a UFO displayed their project and told us how long they had worked on it. All entries were put in a drawing and Penny won the gift card this month. Remember if you finish a UFO that is at least 6 months old, bring it in and show it off!

Kate passed around a Make and Take to everyone. We made little Christmas trees from yo-yos.

Show and Tell offers a chance to show off your finished work. We had quilts and garments. We have an amazing amount of talent in this group!

Sew Days: Every Wednesday at St. Paul's Conference Center, 9am – 2pm.

Meeting: Every 2nd Tuesday at St. Paul's Catholic Church, 330 W Coral Gables Dr, Phoenix 630pm – 830pm.

Rippers

submitted by Wendy Beesley

Holidays seem to bring out the best with our members. The November meeting was a day for our Thanksgiving Festivities with food, stories, and show & tell. While celebrating one holiday the planning for the next continues. The Christmas Party Gift Exchange includes making a non-Christmas Gnome using a provided pattern, with the final project a wall hanging size gift. It will be delightful to see all the variations our group can create.

One of the first orders of Business during the December meeting was the presentation of an incredibly special and unique quilt to Judy Shahenian for her 16 years of Service as President of the Rippers. Judy has been instrumental in her years of service to keep members involved through her wonderful communications, welcoming, caring style & attitude and for her special sense of humor. Dawn Funkhouser presented the quilt made by many Ripper members. Please see pictures of the Frog Quilt, noting the special pattern (Dawn), quilting & frogs web feet (Carrol, Jeri), dyed fabric (Dawn), applique (Susan C., Dawn), embroidery (Charlene and Dawn), trapunto (Dolores, Dawn), back label (Charlene), donations of fabric & dye (Dolores, Jeri), back envelope for extra signature cloth (Darleen), sleeve (Peg) quilt trimming & binding (Suzanne, Susan Q.) and signatures on one side of the quilt (Dawn and many others), suggestion for asking past members to sign (Babs), suggesting to Judy to wear green (Hope) & finally Judy for attending and wearing her green! One note is that the signatures include all past, & present members of the Rippers during Judy's term. The quilt was a total surprise for Judy and lead us all to emotions we struggled to contain. Thank you, Judy, for your wonderful service during these years.

Strawberry Patchers of Pine, Payson, Strawberry & Happy Jack

submitted by Jane Wilcox

Happy New Year!? Is it ME, or have these past few months absolutely flown by In the wink of an eye? We rang in the holiday season with our annual Christmas Party and Dirty Santa gift exchange. Many thanks to Strawberry Patcher member Tamara Morkken for the use of her back room at “THAT” Brewery and Pub. The food was amazing thanks to Kathy Hunt and Lori Ohmart, and of course the company was delightful!!! The gifts brought for the ‘Dirty Santa’ gift exchange were all so wonderful, and no one walked away disappointed.

We’re gearing up to send out our charitable donations and are excited about all the ones we were able to assist this year! Due to the sales from our Country Store, and our Annual Quilt show, we were able to disperse 7,000.00 to Rim Country Charities that are so deserving. This year we donated to the following:

Lacy Oldland Scholarship, Pine/Strawberry Food Bank, Pine /Strawberry Elementary School, Payson School District, The Central Arizona Humane Society, The Pine/Strawberry Historical Society, Payson Community Kids, Time Out Women’s Shelter, Dueker Ranch, Katie’s Closet, NAMI,, Isabelle Hunt Library, Whispering Hope Ranch and PHHVI.

January will be our start of year for all our activities planned, mostly starting with our June Quilt Show. We are looking forward to our stay at home “camp” in February (AKA, Sew Days) and our Quilt Camp in Prescott coming in March.

If you’d like to join us at our January meeting, it is the first Thursday of the month. We start at 9:00am for social time, 9:30 is the meeting – held in the Library Activity Room at the Community Center in Pine. We always welcome guests! Our 2nd Thursday is for members only. We hope you’ll join so you can have fun, also! The photos are of our Christmas Party. Happy New Year to All!
